

5TH AFRICAN ORGANIC CONFERENCE

Postponement of the 5th AOC

The African Organic Network (AfrONet) informs all stakeholders and partners that the scheduled 5th Africa Organic Conference (AOC) for 9th - 12th November 2022 has been postponed to the second quarter of 2023, due to unavoidable circumstances that were beyond our control.

However, call for papers will still be received from scholars, farmers, policy makers, development workers and government technical personnel and we urge more papers to be submitted, so that the reviewing team can have ample time to analyze and prioritize credible papers for presentation during the conference.

The terms and conditions for submitting papers still remain the same. Four (4) tracks shall remain, namely;

(i) Farmers' track, (ii) Policy track, (iii) Markets and Trade track & (iv) Research & Academic track.

Paper submission requirement include; full paper, not more than 6 pages in A4, 1.5 spacing, Times New Romans 12 font size.

The host for the rescheduled 5th AOC will change to another country within East African region.

All papers should be sent to info@afro.net.bio
