

DELIVERED BY

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

OPEN CALL • 2026 COHORT

APPLY BY ROLLING ADMISSION

— AAITC - EAST AFRICA

Agroecology and Agro-biodiversity International Training Course (AAITC)

for undergraduate year 3 students from the following disciplines: Agroecology, Agronomy, Soil Science, Environmental Studies, Food Science, Agribusiness, Horticulture, Forestry, Rural Development, Digital Tech & related fields.

A transdisciplinary journey where knowledge meets action, led by Biovision Africa Trust through the TDLI programme

Harnessing youth's potential for food system transformation

FORMAT

Hybrid
(Online & In-Person)

DURATION

1 Month Online
& 1 Week In-Person

BOOTCAMP

Nairobi, Kenya

TARGET

University Undergraduates
Year 3

What you'll build

FOUR PILLARS • 01 - 04

01 Agroecology in Practice

Real-world skills in regenerative farming, soil health and whole-ecosystem thinking.

02 Transdisciplinary Co-creation

Cross-sector collaboration on complex agri-food system challenges.

03 East African Network

Learn alongside peers from Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania and the wider region.

04 Innovation Mindset

Design-led problem-solving for resilient, sustainable and equitable food systems.

CURRICULUM HIGHLIGHTS

Learning Streams

• Agroecology & Agrobiodiversity

• Circular Economy

• Agroecological Entrepreneurship

• Digital Tools for Agroecology

• Agroecological Innovation

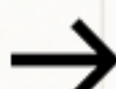

• Seed Sovereignty

• Transdisciplinary Research

READY TO APPLY?

Limited cohort.
Apply early.

Scan the QR code to download the application form, fill and submit it together with a CV to procurement@biovisionafrica.org latest 28th May 2026

Scan to download

<https://scan.page/jG8liV>

AAITC • 2026

ELIGIBLE COUNTRIES
Kenya • Uganda • Tanzania